

ALASKA AIRLINES BAY TO BREAKERS

Elite Athlete Guide
RACE DAY: MAY 20, 2018

ABOUT THE RACE

San Francisco's Alaska Airlines Bay to Breakers has run continuously for over 100 year as a staple to the City by the Bay. With a starting point near the San Francisco Bay, a few blocks from The Embarcadero, the 12K race runs west through the city and finishes at the Great Highway where breakers crash onto the Pacific Coast's Ocean Beach.

HAYES HILL CHALLENGE

San Francisco is known for its steep hills that fill the city. Bay to Breakers features one of the most feared hills to climb, Hayes Hill. With an average grade of 5.5% (11.1% at its steepest), this .69 mile stretch of road is one of the toughest climbs in country. The male and female runner with the fastest time from base to peak of the hill will receive a $1000 bonus! (NOTE: Runner must finish entire race in under 50 minutes in order to qualify for HHC.)

GENERAL INFO

Elite athletes must register for this event prior to race weekend. Coaches, managers, agents and or athletes must register with Elite Manager Danielle Domenichelli: danielle@gosilverback.com or 916.719.0465.

Elite Athletes must provide travel itinerary to Danielle Domenichelli if they need to have transportation to the host hotel.

Managers and or coaches are required to make sure that elite athletes have cash in US dollars while they are in San Francisco. Eligible elite runners will receive a travel stipend, hotel accommodations, transportation to host hotel, some meals and a small per diem. Please speak with Danielle Domenichelli for eligibility details.
